ARTIST VISION STATEMENT

Born in the Netherlands and rooted in Ibiza, SHARE delivers groove-driven house music that blends percussive rhythms and uplifting melodies into a distinctive, high-energy flow designed for the dancefloor.

ARTIST BIO

Born in the Netherlands and now based in Ibiza, Sharon Pieksma, known as SHARE, is a DJ and producer shaping a distinct voice within contemporary house music.

Her sound is rooted in groove—blending percussive rhythms, rolling basslines, and subtle, stripped-back vocals—designed to create a seamless sense of flow and controlled energy on the dancefloor. Drawing from both classic and modern influences, her sets are precise, driving, and emotionally uplifting without losing depth.

SHARE has released music on respected labels including Crosstown Rebels, Mobilee, Yes Yes Yes, and Abracadabra, reinforcing her position within the global house landscape.

She has performed internationally at leading venues and festivals such as Hï Ibiza, SXM Festival, Untold, Voodoo Village, and Into the Woods, alongside appearances across Europe, South Africa, Asia, and the United States.

With a clear artistic direction and a disciplined approach to her craft, SHARE continues to build a consistent and recognisable presence—focused on delivering music that is both functional and refined.
